correct, it is a delusion if the evidence on which it is believed is delusional. Delusions are held without insight: If someone wonders if they are deluded or not, they almost certainly are not. A psychiatric colleague, after a long silence over lunch, said, 'I suppose the difference between delusion and faith is that delusion is held

Why Christian Faith Still Makes Sense

Atheists about religion is that faith is intellectually baseless. In this book I try to give a clear case that belief in Christian faith still makes sense and thus answer that criticism. Although Christian faith requires the ability to stare down some of the intellectual fads and fashions of our age, it does not require the sacrifice of the mind.
