The resulting 13-track record is broadly emotive, and anthemic. It was finished just before the global lockdown was imposed, and it's aptly titled, The Human Condition. In the past two decades, Black Stone Cherry has set a new standard for Southern rock, revitalizing the tradition with burly riffs and stirring rock hooks.

Billy Parish is a longtime contact from the network of young activists working to build an energy menu for America that works for the long haul. I first encountered him at the climate treaty talks in Montreal in 2005 and included his views in a piece on climate rhetoric and reality in 2006.. We disagree on some things, but agree on the unsustainable nature of business as usual.

Not all amps are made the same – at least in the eyes of the metal gods. And while there's no shortage of distortion pedals out there that could happily turn even the cleanest of twins into a raging bloody-eyed beast, many of metal's heaviest riffers will readily admit that it's really all about the amp sound. That, friends, is why we've put together this guide to the best amps for metal.
