This chapter also teaches a central lesson about survival: life is not fair. The moose attack is not only sudden, but it appears to have no identifiable cause. Brian is hit by the tornado shortly after being attacked and wounded by a moose for no reason. The author makes it clear that the concept of fairness is meaningless in the wild.

We are up to John chapter 16 and as we continue, we really have to go back to the end of John 15 just for a moment to see the experience that Jesus has been talking about. In that chapter we have the central teaching, in the Upper Room Discourse, that He is the true vine and we have this image, or allegory, of the vine.
