The Teachers College Reading and Writing Project (TCR WP) Running Records Assessment consists of a series of leveled assessment texts, aligned to the Fountas & Pinnell (F &P) system of text complexity, plus teacher record sheets for each text, guidance for scoring, and recommended student benchmarks for grades K-5.

Teacher College Running Records

A running record captures both how well a student reads (the number of words they read correctly) and their reading behaviors (what they say and do as they read). At the start of the year, or when you start working with a student, a running record can help match the student with books that are right for them.
